For over 30 years, the National Training Centre is a popular destination for skaters from around the world.

Three ice rinks offer sports like hockey, curling and figure skating. Many international hockey matches from elderly, women and in the youth level, have been carried out here. This shows the perfect conditions here in Füssen. So six Hockey World and European Junior Championships were conducted.

Leisure:

Füssen is framed in the south of the rugged, more than 2000 meters high peaks of Oberammergau, Lechtal and Tannheimer Alps. Füssen is the highest town in Bavaria and attracts the midst of a plain with no less than 11 lakes for swimming, boating and walking on the shore itineraries. To the north and west, the flower-strewn meadows of alpine upland hilly stretch. Close to Füssen there are the world famous Royal Castles of Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau. In the historic center around the High Castle there are a wide range of restaurants, cafes and bars.
